   (e) System-generated, random masking of identity of each Bidder of a particular shop or shops with auction Id shall be in effect, with each Bidder being able to see his own masked Id, the real-time highest bid amount for the concerned shop and the masked Ids of the participating bidders;

   (f) The minimum and maximum permissible increments per bid shall be determined by the EAC and shall be in effect during live e-action;

   (g) No reduction in bid shall be permitted once it has been signed and submitted by a bidder using his DSC and accepted by the system. New bids that are same as current highest bid shall not be allowed in order to prevent tie of bids;
(h) The masked Id and bid amount of provisional highest bidder of a particular shop or shops with auction Id shall be displayed to all the bidders immediately after end of e-auction slot for that particular shop or shops; and

(i) In case of districtwide or areawide communication network failure, only if duly certified by competent authorities from concerned network service provider of that area or district, the e-auction for all shops with auctions Ids affected during that network failure may be conducted afresh at a later date by the EAC.

(11) If no bid is received in e-auction for any shop or group of shops, the Excise Commissioner may notify another date for settlement of shops through e-auction or may allow these shops to be run by State Government agencies or co-operative organizations with the licence fee as decided by the State Government.

(12) After successful completion of e-auction for all shops with auction Ids, the list of provisional highest Bidders with their respective bid amounts for all such shops shall be submitted officially by EAC to respective Collector.

(13) Verification of Original documents, including Challan deposit towards non-refundable application fee of each shop and realization of EMD payment instrument towards each shop, shall be made in respect of the provisional highest Bidders for each shop as recommended by EAC before the license is actually granted by the Collector. Such verification shall be done by the Superintendent of Excise assisted by at least one Inspector or Deputy Superintendent of Excise, wherever such posts are available as nominated by the Collector before the licence is actually granted by the Collector. For the purpose of this verification, all provisional highest Bidders for the shop or shops shall be required to submit the documents in original as mentioned in Paragraph 6 and also the original document to prove that he is the owner of the premises or has taken on rent the premises, where he intends to set up shop or shops to respective Collector before the end date specified in Sale Notice.

(14) Failure to furnish the documents referred to Paragraph 13 before the stipulated deadline or furnishing false documents shall be sufficient ground for cancellation of the status of the provisional highest Bidder and the Bidder is liable for criminal proceedings under relevant provisions of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 for furnishing false documents. Settlement of licence shall be done at the highest evaluated responsive bid for the concerned shop, as validated by the concerned Collector and EAC. The unsettled shop, if any, shall be settled afresh through e-auction or be allowed to be run by State Government agencies and co-operative organizations with the licence fee as decided by the State Government. If the provisional highest Bidder defaults on propriety of documents submitted during physical scrutiny, the EMD tendered by him shall stand forfeited.

(15) Post physical scrutiny of the original documents, upon realization of advance consideration money as may be determined by the Government, from time to time, an after adjustment against deposited EMD, the highest evaluated responsive Bidder shall be confirmed with the settlement of the shop. He shall then put his signature in the Register of Settlement and Register of Undertaking to lift the monthly minimum guaranteed quantity as may be determined by the State Government from time to time and shall be then granted licence by the Collector.
(16) The licensee shall open the shop after issuance of licence in the stipulated locality within the stipulated time (as specified from time to time) from start of currency of licence.

(17) The privilege once granted shall be valid for a period of one financial year and unless and otherwise directed by the State Government, may continue for a maximum period of three financial years including the year of grant, subject to annual renewal of the licence for the second and third financial year succeeding the year of e-auction on the terms and conditions to be prescribed by the State Government from financial year to financial year. In the event of any exigencies, if a shop is settled in the middle of the financial year through e-auction, the privilege may continue for remaining period of the original three financial year’s validity, subject to annual renewal as per the terms and conditions.

(18) The left over stock of the outgoing licensee shall be transferred by the Collector of the concerned District to the succeeding licensee, who may take it towards his MGQ on payment of invoice price (cost price and excise duty) to the outgoing licensee so that the succeeding licensee would be in a position to lift the stock as per MGQ for the licence period provided that the left over stock of IMFL or Beer should have the period of validity of its use.

(19) The State Government reserves the right to refuse grant of privilege without assigning any reason therefor and settle the privilege before expire of three financial years in the manner as may be decided by the State Government from time to time.

(20) In case of expiry of validity period or omission of renewal or suspension or cancellation or surrender of licence, the shop shall be settled through e-auction or be allowed to be run by the State Government agencies and Co-operative Organizations with the licence fee as decided by the Government.

(21) If any of the requirements as mentioned under the order is found to be factually incorrect at any point of time the bid of the said person or license, as the case may be, is likely to be rejected or cancelled by the competent authorities without payment of any damage/compensation whatsoever.

(22) The decision of the Excise Commissioner on any grievance arising in course of the e-auction process in the State shall be final.

This order shall come into force with effect from the date on which it is published in the official Gazette.

NOTICE INVITING ONLINE APPLICATIONS FOR SETTLEMENT OF IMFL ‘OFF’ AND C. S. SHOPS THROUGH E-AUCTION FOR THE YEAR ..............................................................

1. The consideration money for exercising the privilege for retail sale of India Made Foreign Liquor [IMFL ‘OFF’ and Country Spirit (C. S.) in the State of Odisha for ......................... District] shall be determined through “auction on a forward basis conducted Online”, (hereinafter referred to as ‘e-auction) in accordance with the order issued under sub-section (2) of Section 29 of the Bihar and Odisha Excise Act, 1915 (hereinafter called as Act) as for the time being in force and applicable as per Annexure–’I’.

2. The privilege to be so granted shall confer the right to open a shop in the locality named in the list. The complete list of the localities where the shops are sought to be opened with their monthly reserve price is annexed herewith in Annexure– 'I'.

3. The privilege, without prejudice to any of the provisions of the Act and the rules made thereunder, shall be subject to the following conditions :—

   (i) The consideration money shall be payable in the manner specified in the Odisha Excise (Exclusive Privilege) Foreign Liquor Rules, 1989 and Odisha Excise Exclusive Privilege Rules, 1970.

   (ii) The currency of the licence shall commence on the date of grant of licence for shops settled in the financial year from which date the holder of the licence shall open the shop for retail sale of IMFL / C. S. or for a period as extended by the Government from time to time. Failure to open the shop as stipulated herein shall entail cancellation of licence and recovery of any loss caused to Government, except in case of delay in granting the licence or wherein any shop is closed under Section 26 of the Act.

   (iii) No compensation shall be paid to the holder of a privilege for retail sale of IMFL/ C.S. for closure of the shop on 2nd day of October every year on account of Gandhi Jayanti and also for closure during General Election/ By-Election to Parliament (Lok Sabha) / State Assembly as per direction of the Election Commission of India and in conformity with the direction of the State Election Commission during the Election to Gram Panchayat/ Panchayat Samiti/ Zilla Parishad and Urban Local Bodies and for such other days as the concerned Collector may decide.
(iv) The holder of a licence shall not be entitled to any compensation or to the refund of any consideration money paid or deposited in respect thereof, in the event of his/her licence being cancelled or suspended before the expiration of its term under the provisions of Section 42 of the said Act.

(v) Once a shop starts operating in its sanctioned locality, it shall not be ordinarily shifted. However, shifting of a shop to any un-objectionable site within the same sanctioned locality or other than the sanctioned locality for any special reasons shall be subject to the approval of the Excise Commissioner.

(vi) The holder of the licence shall abide by the provisions of the Act and the Rules and Orders made thereunder.

(vii) The State Government will not be responsible for providing the place for location of shops. It will be the responsibility of the privilege holder to arrange suitable place and carry-on the privilege granted to him only in the locality to which the shop is sanctioned. The place so arranged shall be free from objection from the public.

(viii) The privilege once granted shall be valid for a period of one year, and unless and otherwise directed by the State Government, it may continue for a maximum period of three years including the year of grant. If a shop is settled in the middle of the financial year through e-auction, the privilege may continue for the remaining period of the original year and subject to maximum period of three years including the year of grant, unless and otherwise directed by the Government. Wilful omission to renew the licence for a shop or group of shops in terms and conditions generally prescribed for all shall lead to the privilege holder or his family members or his associates being disallowed under Rule 102-A of Board’s Excise Rules, 1965 from taking part in subsequent settlement process of the shop or any other shops till completion of five years including the year of grant or as may be determined by the Government from time to time. At the end of the license’s original three year’s validity or on suspension or surrender of licence, the privilege shall be settled through e-auction or otherwise as directed by the State Government.
